CELEBRATE THE little THINGS

PUMPKIN SPICE LATTE

Happy Halloween! Anyone have fun plans and/or costumes for tonight? I'm headed over to a friend's to pass out some candy, and then I plan on laying low after a jam-packed weekend. I made this pumpkin spice coffee this morning, and I wanted to share the recipe. Hopefully it's a little bit cooler wherever you are (it's supposed to be almost 90 tomorrow!!! What?!).

PUMPKIN SPICE LATTE:

- 3/4 cup whole milk
- 2 teaspoons canned pumpkin puree
- 1 tablespoon (or more!) Pumpkin Spice Syrup (I used Blackberry Patch)
- Freshly brewed coffee (I used King Bean)
- Cinnamon, for topping

Whisk together milk, pumpkin puree, and pumpkin spice syrup. Heat mixture for 1 minute in microwave or over the stove until hot. Fill mug about halfway, and then top with freshly brewed coffee. King Bean from Charleston is my coffee of choice, always!

Happy Halloween 🍂
